Dedication

to

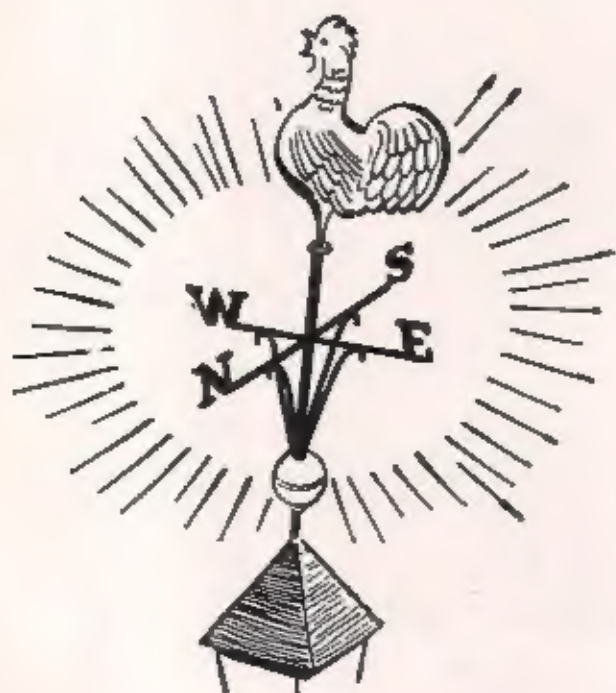

MISS LOUISE MITCHELL

Who has by her unceasing efforts, her undying enthusiasm, her ability as teacher and sponsor, won the love, admiration, and respect of all; we do lovingly dedicate this volume of
THE SWAN.

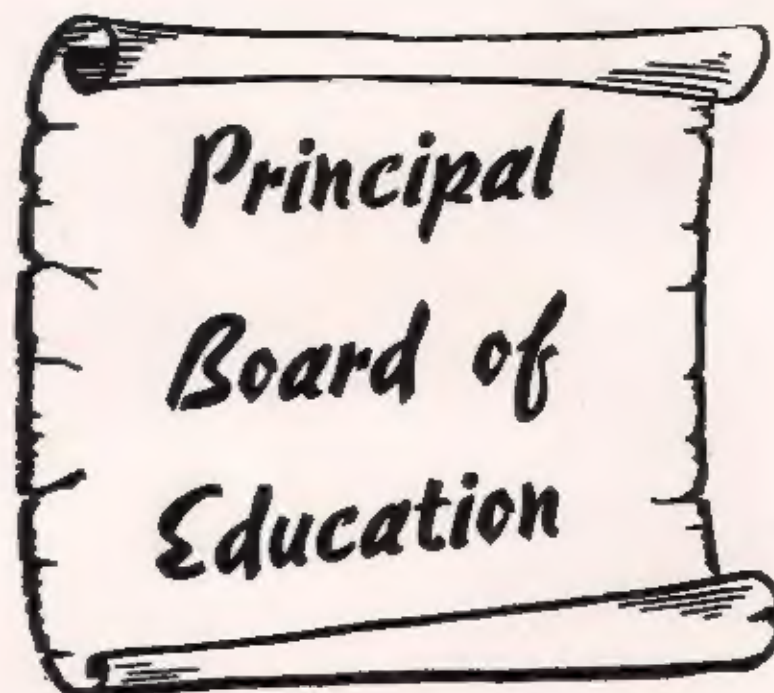

Mr. R. S. Handley is a real student and tireless worker. He believes high school work is serious business. He insists upon thorough scholarship. He believes every student should be busy in the promotion of his own growth and in the welfare of the La Cygne Rural High School. While insisting on real scholarship, he has at the same time proved an enthusiastic supporter of all forms of extra-curricular activities.

The splendid progress of the La Cygne Rural High School has been made possible through the leadership of outstanding citizens. This group, serving without financial remuneration, is motivated by the desire to provide the finest possible schools for the youth of the La Cygne community.

The students of L.R.H.S. are grateful for their leadership and service.

The cheerleaders blue sweaters and Indian emblems were bought by the school and are to be used by the succeeding cheerleaders. The red corduroy skirts, numbers, and emblems were purchased by the girls.

The Pep Club sponsored a Chili Supper for the members of the football team. Carrying out the Indian theme, the Pep Club girls participated in the Homecoming Football game.

A bus for the Pep Club girls was taken to all of the football and basketball games.

Awards were given this year to Pep Club members who did not miss more than two games during the football-basketball season including the tournaments.

Marjorie Frank, Jerry Johnson, Dorothy McGinnis, Janie Prike, Noreen Smith, Barbara Wilhoit, and Sharron Driskill had perfect attendance.

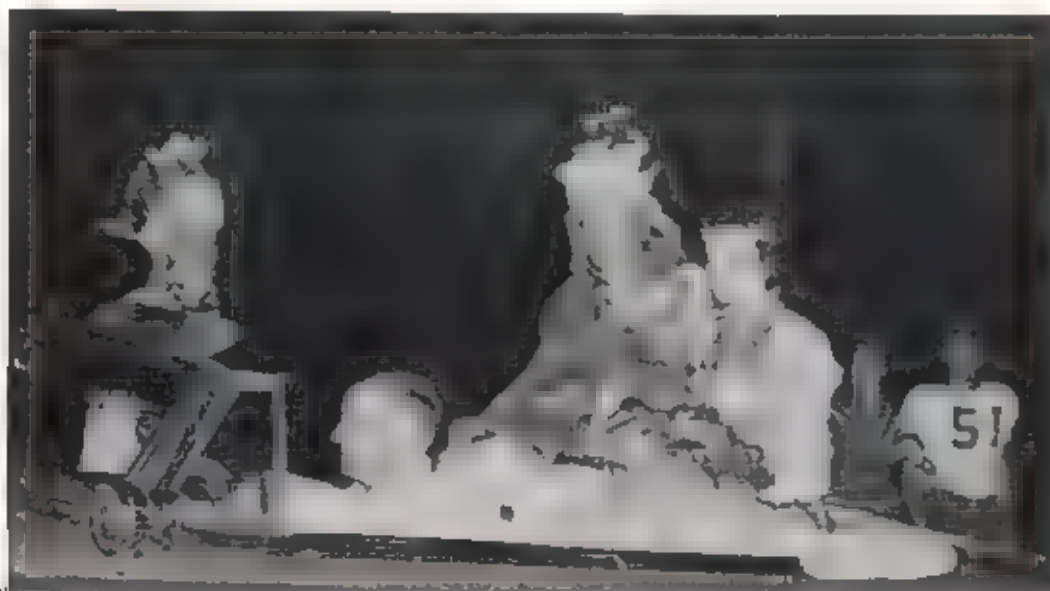

Jeanne Aelmore, Darlene Cox, and Judy Sims missed but one game each. Ruth Ann Pease, Joyce Terry, Sara Woodburn, and Marie Cole Seals missed two games each.

Shirley Stewart.

The band ran out on the field and sat down in a semi-circle around their council fire, while the Indian dancers performed around the fire.

Kenny Farris, Anita Gage, and Earline
Rose played an Indian fanfare calling forth the princesses and warriors. The attendants came from two tepees on the east plain and formed an aisle for the King and Queen then escorted them to Chief Weickert for the crowning. After the crowning they were transported around and off the field in several convertibles.

CHILI SUPPER

On November 20, the Minnie-Ha-Has entertained the football squad with a Chili Supper. The Indian Theme was carried out in all the decorations. The stage was the scene of an Indian village with tepees and canoes. The tables, arranged in the shape of a football, were donned with Indian decorations, consisting of miniature tepees over the nut-cups, cut-outs of Indian warriors, and programs with an Indian Chief's head on the front.

Janet, Hurst,
and Coach

An enjoyable program was presented by the following: Group singing, led by Joyce Terry; Welcome by Barbara Wilhoit; Response by Hurst Miller; Freshman girl's chorus; composed of Marilyn Jones, Mary Sue McGee, Carol Hatch, Joyce Andrews, Sara Woodburn, Judy Sims, and Janet Culter; Introduction of the boys by Coach Patrick, along with a few jokes; pantomime by Ronald Tompkins and Ronald Smith. A square dance was also done for our enjoyment. Clayton Vann and Kenneth Farris sang Be-Bop-A-Lula. Mr. Handley made the closing remarks. The evening was finished with dancing.

The Sophomore Home Economics Class prepared the Chili Supper. Freshman Pep Club members were the clean-up committee.

CHRISTMAS VESPERS

Christmas Vespers was presented December 13, under the direction of Mrs. Lois Irwin, by the combined glee clubs of the high school. As they sang, each song was beautifully illustrated by angels, shepherds, Joseph and Mary, and the Wise Men.

Johnny Andrews was Joseph, Kathryn Pease was Mary, Jimmy Welckert, Hurst Miller, and Roger Lawhead were the Wise Men.

The music department, under the direction of Mrs. Lois Irwin, presented many fine numbers for programs. The girl's glee club consisting of 39 members was accompanied by Erma Rose. Sharron Driskill was accompanist for the 19 members in boy's glee club and the mixed chorus.

A cantata "Music of Bethlehem" was memorized by the glee clubs and presented in December. The music department took part in the County Vocal Festival held at Blue Mound March 16 and the District Festival held at Pittsburg April 5 and 6.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying or who have studied homemaking in junior and senior high schools in the U.S.A., Alaska, Hawaii, Guam, Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico. In our short 11-year history, FHA has multiplied four times its size. To date we have a total of 427,404 members. Kansas has a membership of 7,575. LaCygne has 50 members in its chapter. We, the LaCygne Chapter, have not only been active in our local chapter but also in the state, and this year in the national by having sent a delegate to Chicago last July to the National Convention.

Officers: Aletha Filtingberger, Historian; Erma Rose, Pianist; Dorothy McGinnis, Reporter; Sharron Driskill, Secretary; Janie Prike, President; Barbara Wilhoit, Vice-President; Elaine Gross, Treasurer; Anita Gage, Song Leader; and Kay Hampton, Parliamentarian.

PLAY CAST

Robert Bennett	He told the truth for 24 hours	Marvin Lindsey
E. M. Ralston	Businessman	Tom Sims
Dick Donnelly	A partner in the business firm	Ronald Smith
Clarence Van Dusen	A young man in business	Ronald Tompkins
Bishop Doran	Who got his money back	Theron Miller
Gwendolyn Ralston	Robert's girl friend	Barbara Bergman

Ethel Clark	A sophisticated girl	Marie Sours
Mable Jackson	A dancer	Joyce Tinsley
Sable Jackson	A dancer	Earline Rose
Martha	A maid	Wanda Weickert
Prompter		Aletha Filtingberger

The first act took place in Mr. Ralston's office. Robert Bennett was led to bet ten thousand dollars that he could tell the truth for twenty-four hours. Those betting against him were E. M. Ralston, Dick Donnelly and Clarence Van Dusen. They all went home with Bob that night to keep him from hiding and also to get him to tell a lie. Trying every trick that they knew, they got Bob into some embarrassing situations that infuriated his fiance, Gwendolyn Ralston, and her mother.

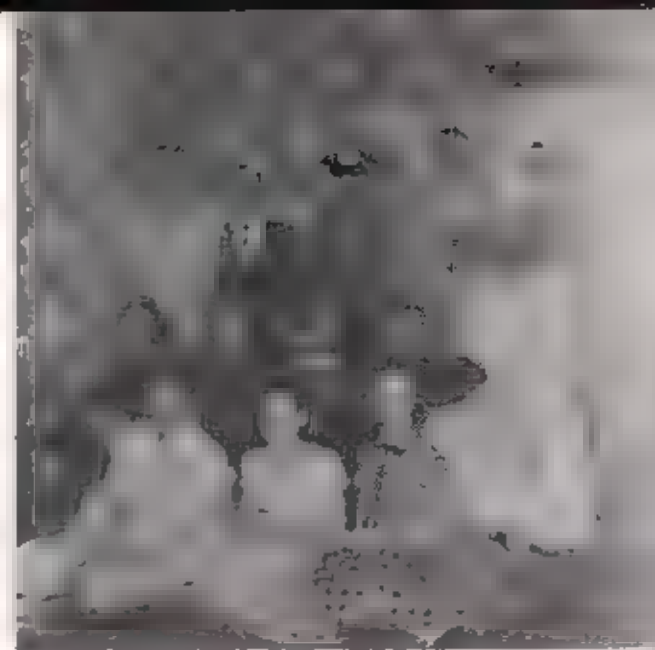

Finally working on his love for Gwen, the conspirators got Bob into a situation that he couldn't get out of without revealing the bet to Gwen. Revealing the bet was against the rules, so he had to get out of it some other way. With three minutes until the bet was to end, he began to stall for time. This accomplished his purpose and he immediately began to lie to clear himself.

The ushers were Dorothy McGinnis, Aletha Filtingberger, Joyce Purdy, Jerry Johnson, and Margaret Stevenin. The stage crew was Lyle Potts, Larry Gugler, Junior Feldman, Glen Creager, Joe Maschler, Melvin Brown, Eddie Elliott, and Clayton Vann. Jerry Twogood took care of the publicity for the play.

The Grandfather clock, so important to the action of the play, was designed and made by Larry Wilson.

Special numbers for the Junior Play were "Nightriders in the Sky" by Lawrence Aelmore, A Singing and Hambone Act by Clayton Vann and Kenny Farris, and a Vocal Duet by David Jackson and Lyle Potts.

Senior Play

Little Miss Fixit

Under the Direction of Mrs. Virginia Carter

The play, "Little Miss Fixit," is woven around thirteen year-old Cynthia Webb, who tries to fix her families "live-life." Her attempts result in a series of mix-ups which make a hilarious play.
